

Situational Functional Japanese

Int. 1, Ms. Halper

Lesson 2 Part 2 HOMEWORK

Name:

2. What would you say in Japanese in the following situations?

- 1) when you meet a neighbor on the street in the morning and want to ask where they are going:
- 2) when you meet a friend on the street in the afternoon:
- 3) when you don't want to say exactly where you are going:
- 4) when you meet a friend on the street and, upon finding that they are going to the same place you are going, want to say, "I am, too. Shall we go together?"
- 5) when you want to send a package to Japan by sea mail and want to know how long it will take:
- 6) when you want to send a package to Japan by air mail and want to know how much it will cost:
- 7) when a clerk at a post office gave you the wrong change:
- 8) before the New Year's holidays:
- 9) when someone just told you that they are sick:
- 10) upon finding that a friend is going on a trip, you want to wish them a safe trip:

3 Translate the following sentences into Japanese.

- 1) I bought 20 100-yen stamps at the post office yesterday.
- 2) I sometimes write emails to my friends in Japan.
- 3) Tom drank 2 cups of coffee this morning (けさ).
- 4) Mr. Tanaka does the laundry on Sundays.
- 5) Hi, Michael. Where are you off to? (casual)

6) Ms. Brown washes dishes every evening.

7) I go to the movies on weekends. I often see action movies.